

PRODUCTION QUAD CLASS (CLUBMAN)

Please note the Production Quad Class is a new class introduced for the Quad Racing Ireland Club Championship only, this class will run within the Clubman Class but scored separately for the club championship. Please note a rider can select to compete in both the Clubman Class and the Production Quad class as long as your machine meets the criteria for the Production Quad Class. Please see criteria below, these rules must be strictly adhered too failing to adhere shall result in your points being void, please also note that your machine will be checked for compliance.

Yamaha YFZ450/R production rules

All parts and components to remain as originally manufactured unless otherwise stated in the rules below.

- 1) Lights, horn and handbrake to be removed.
- 2) Any make or size of tyre and rim can be used.
- 3) Lanyard type kill switch and nerf bars to be fitted as per safety regulations.
- 4) Any make of throttle housing and cable can be used, handguards and handlebar risers are optional, no handle bars such as Fasst Flexx or an equivalent.
- 5) Steering damper fitment shall be optional.
- 6) Skid plate, bumpers, grab bar may be changed.
- 7) Track width must not exceed 1245mm at any time.
- 8) No performance enhancing modifications allowed.
- 9) Exhaust and airbox including lid must remain original.
- 10) Any make or size of chain and sprocket is permitted.

All riders must register and agree to the rules for this championship in order to score points.

Any queries, please contact the Club Secretary or Chairman.